The Dunaharaszti Hotel was opened a year ago. It is a commercial-leisure hotel: during the weekdays mainly occupied by business people and at the weekends, primarily reserved by holidaymakers. Holidaymakers go there to do and watch sports.

There are 62 rooms with sub-categories: non-smoking, smoking, four-poster bedrooms and mini-suites.

You are G. Tóth, the sales manager of the hotel. You would like to draw the attention of Ian Smith, the Assistant Director of British Chamber of Commerce Hungary to the new hotel by describing

- why it has an ideal location
- what target clientele might be attracted by the hotel and how you can make use of the double profile of the hotel
- what events the hotel might provide venue for recommending the hotel.

Write a letter of 180–200 words.

Dear Mr Smith,

The management would like to draw the attention of the BCCH to the one year old Hotel Dunaharaszti.

There are 62 rooms with sub-categories: non-smoking, smoking, four-poster bedrooms and mini-suites.

Dunaharaszti is the first town next to Budapest on the road No. 51 towards the south of Hungary. The transport links between Budapest are coach and a local train.

Facilities for business clientele are one large meeting room and two syndicate rooms with a capacity of 20-20 seats respectively. All the rooms are well-equipped with multi-media projector, screen, whiteboard and flipchart. Wireless and off the mains Internet access are also available.

For leisure guests on-site facilities are a beauty parlour, a hairdresser, a multi-gym and a swimming-pool.

Off-site facilities include bike hire, water-skiing, boat trips and angling in summer, and ice-skating and dog sledging in winter. Budapest sightseeing tours are available in all seasons.

The Hotel Dunaharaszti is excellent venue for corporate meetings, weddings and other family events.

Having established a good reputation in the accommodation market in the past year, we would like to ask you to recommend our hotel to your clientele.

We look forward to welcoming you and your clientele in our business- leisure hotel.

Yours sincerely,

G. Tóth
 Sales Manager
